We're committed to the Edmonds Community

Right At School's mission, since our founding over a decade ago, has been to inspire a love of learning, support schools, and give parents peace of mind.

While we're new to the Edmonds community, we are committed to building a strong, lasting partnership with families, teachers, staff and neighbors.

Year over year, our goal is to build and earn your trust in providing equitable, high quality before and after school care to the Edmonds community.

Here's what parents have to say...

I just wanted to write you and tell you my thoughts on the Right At School Program now that it is up and running. Almost every day when I pick up my son from Beverly Elementary he is annoyed with me because I picked him up too soon. Which makes me really happy.

We had come from a daycare that was fantastic and then up and closed with one week's notice. We switched to another program but my son was unhappy there since most of the kids were older and the ones who were his age went to a different school and he was unable to connect with anyone there. The staff was great but between that and having to drive to downtown Edmonds, we knew we would be switching to Right At School as soon as we could.

Anyways, I just wanted to say thank you for implementing the program. The staff are fantastic.

My children have started attending Right At School in the mornings at Maplewood. I want you to know that our experience has been great. You are great communicators with our family. My children feel comfortable, say it is fun, and want to go! We are excited this is an option this year because Maplewood hasn't had it before.

I know that you are making adjustments and figuring things out, but I want to say that the two teachers that work at Right At School at EE have been wonderful. They are kind, easy to approach, receptive and warm. I can tell they are working their butts off and doing their best to make this a great place for kids!

Thank you Vicki. And thank you for working so hard to make the Right At School program successful for everyone. I really think it is going to be awesome and I am so grateful it came to our school. :)
